

There is no civil liberties in anonymity and these bastards can only gain headway through stealth and secrecy.

Let me know if you want me to come down to Washington to see you, in order to go into this matter further. I am quite persuaded, however, that at this late date Henry should not extend his regulations to cut under what the Vinson bill is proposing to do by statute.

Best to you,

Yours,

(signed) Morris L. Ernst